"I continue to be amazed with the effectiveness of the program despite the severity of the disorders."

Linda B. - SLP in Monroe, LA

This seminar is appropriate for:

General Ed. Classroom Teachers PreK-2, and those working with struggling readers of all ages: SLPs, Special Educators, Title I Teachers, Reading Specialists / Coaches, ELL Instructors, Administrators, RtI Specialists, etc.

Lively Letters, developed by Nancy Telian, MS, CCC-SLP, uses mnemonics, imagery, music, hand/mouth cues, and stories to train phonemic awareness, phonics, and speech production skills.

Sight Words You Can See, developed by Penny Castagnozzi, uses imagery, comical stories, and the students' strong phonics base to train semantically abstract and phonetically irregular sight words.

This seminar will only take place if there are at least 125 attendees.
Please pass this news along ASAP to colleagues who will benefit.

ONLY $25.00

Reading with TLC:

- ▶ Reduces the need for special education services
- ▶ Crosses all 3 tiers of the Response to Intervention Model:
- ▶ Improves phonemic awareness, phonics, speech production, & sight word skills
- ▶ Integrates with other programs already in place
- ▶ Is easy to implement and fun for both students and educators
- ▶ Yields quick, measurable gains in the skills shown to predict reading success

Materials: No materials are included with this training. Reading with TLC will, however, have materials available for purchase, in a separate room at the seminar, for those planning to implement the program.
